

WORKSHOP 2

Teaching a practical skill

- Prepare beforehand before meeting patient
- Explain step by step
- It,s OK to be nervous
- Start with easy pt
- Close observation in beginning
- Feedback to student
- Time to teach is a problem
- Teaching is an attitude

WORKSHOP 2

Teaching at the bedside

- Time to teach
- Numbers of students
- Prepare in advance, know your student, level, create a learning atmosphere
- Select and Prepare the patient
- Cover topics in the curriculum
- Observe the student in action, may need guidance to keep on track
- Give feedback to student, and patient
- Get feedback on your teaching

WORKSHOP 2

Giving feedback

- Essential for teaching
- Prepare for teaching, know your student, create a positive learning environment
- Be a credible teacher
- Build in time to give feedback, immediate, face to face
- Informal vs formal feedback
- Positive vs ,negative feedback
- Be specific, observe student in action without interruption
- Video feedback
- Learner centred
- Summation of various teachers